

As a past railroad and steamboat hub of commerce, the City of Franklin is a laid-back cousin to the larger cities just miles away. Located within the Coastal Plain, at the head of the Blackwater River, the City of Franklin is a place where people know each other – from the people who call it home to the City Government and from those who operate businesses to those who travel here to shop.

The City of Franklin is conveniently located, making for a short drive to locations from Richmond to the beaches of Virginia Beach and the Outer Banks of North Carolina. An enjoyable trip to Historic Jamestown, the City of Williamsburg, or the battlefields of Yorktown for the history buffs. A family trip to Bush Gardens Amusement Park, Water Country USA, Great Wolf Lodge, or Ocean Breeze Waterpark for the thrill seekers. A day of strolling through the Mariner's Museum, Virginia Living Museum, Nauticus and the battleship Wisconsin, the Virginia Aquarium and Marine Science Center, the Children's Museum of Virginia, or the Chrysler Museum of Art for a "get-away" day.

Perhaps a sporting event such as a Tide's baseball game, Admiral's hockey game, a college football game, or the Hampton Roads Strikers soccer club is more your style. Maybe you just want to escape to the beaches to fish, surf, sailboard, take a stroll in the sand, or tour the lighthouses - Whatever you want to do; you will find it within easy reach from the City of Franklin!
